

THE WAGNER LAW GROUP

Seth Gaudreau ASSOCIATE

Seth Gaudreau concentrates his practice in ERISA business litigation, and investment management law. Within the ERISA field, he conducts research on all matters relating to employment law, which covers qualified and unqualified benefit plans, welfare plans, and retirement plans.

He also crafts various plan documents and employer administrative forms. Seth assists clients in the filing of Forms 5500 and 5588 with the U.S. Department of Labor and has significant experience advising investment managers and other clients on key provisions within ERISA Title I and in negotiating other ERISA issues related to investment management services. His duties also include drafting legal memoranda and briefs for litigation.

Prior to joining The Wagner law Group, Seth was associated with leading law firms in Boston and Washington, D.C.
