

Preeminent Boston-Based Law Firm Expands its Litigation and Labor, Human Resources & Employment Law Practices With the Addition of Katherine Brustowicz

Boston, MA, October 16, 2018 – Marcia Wagner, the Managing Director of The Wagner Law Group, widely renowned as the country’s top ERISA and employee benefits law firm, is pleased to announce that attorney Katherine Brustowicz has joined the firm as an Associate. “It is crucial that the growth of our firm include hiring young attorneys who display the ability to rise to the high level at which this firm practices law – Katherine, who interned in our firm, has demonstrated that she is more than up to the task, and we are delighted that she is joining us,” says Ms. Wagner.

Katherine Brustowicz attended Suffolk University Law School, where she received the Suffolk University Law School Trustee Academic Scholarship Award, served as a Transnational Law Review Journal Honor Board Member, and earned her Juris Doctor degree in May 2018. She also served as an intern at The Wagner Law Group from May 2018 through September 2018, and, her admission to the Massachusetts Bar is pending, having passed the July 2018 exam. Katherine, who is certified as a mediator, will focus her practice in the areas of Labor, Employment & Human Resources and Litigation, handling employment related disputes in federal and state courts and at arbitration. Her practice will also include advising clients with respect to employment-related policies and procedures and employee training, and representing employers under government agency audit.

Prior to joining The Wagner Law Group, Katherine served as Judicial Intern to the Honorable Sabita Singh in the Massachusetts District Court Appellate Division, as a Legal Intern with the Office of General Counsel at Boston Children’s Hospital, and as a Clinical Research Coordinator and a Data Research Coordinator at Boston Children's Hospital, in the Departments of Plastic & Oral Surgery and Orthopaedic Surgery, respectively.
